

Bluebellgray Comes To Canada

OCTOBER 10, 2014

Colourful prints by a Scottish artist.

Hudson's Bay (<http://www.thebay.com/webapp/wcs/stores/servlet/en/thebay>) is helping us combat the winter doldrums this year with a fresh and summery line of bedding and upholstered furniture by Scottish textile brand bluebellgray (<http://www.bluebellgray.com/>). The featured linens, cushions, chairs and headboards come in a selection of bright prints, all of which are hand-painted by textile designer Fiona Douglas before being digitally printed onto natural fabrics. Oh, and did we mention that two of the prints are Canadian exclusives? Neat!
