Design Find // Jane Lockhart's Downey Chair

Posted by Jayne Peres on June 28, 2012 · Leave a Comment

TV Personality, speaker, and author Jane Lockhart, is a celebrated interior design that has joined forces with Canada's top furniture suppliers Korson Furniture Design and Statum Designs inc for her new collection. Recently launched by the trio is Jane by Jane Lockhart, a fresh, consumer driven line of furniture. The new furniture line modernizes the design process and allows consumers to relax and have fun with the furniture while using Jane's colour theory expertise.

Jane by Jane Lockhart offers a new series of 8 seating collections that offers 240 specially selected fabrics. The 240 specially selected fabrics are sorted into 42 co-ordinated colour palettes to choose from. With 8 tailored mood boards, the consumer has hundreds of options. The consumer then can incorporate fabrics from multiple boards or just stick to one palette. Each fabric is specifically chosen for their colour, style and most importantly it's wear and durability. All the fabrics are sourced from North American mills and each piece is made with solid and engineered hardwood frames. Each piece is also embellished with design details such as nail heads, feather-wrap seats and full piping. The collection of 8 impeccably timeless chairs are made at Statum Designs, located in Toronto.

With Canada Day right around the corner and our pride on our minds, our favourite piece from her collection is the Downey Chair. The Downey Chair is a new, modern take on the 1980's tub chair. Available in a beautiful red brick woven fabric, the impeccably designed chair embodies the sophistication of 'high-end hotel lobbies' and is the perfect, elegant Canada Day splurge. As a gift or a personal purchase, this comfortable piece would be the perfect accent in any room. Available in other colour schemes, of course, the feather-wrap seats are embellished with striking gold nail heads that highlight the crisp arm shape and a defined lower back. The sleek contemporary design achieves the perfect balance of luxury and elegance at a truly affordable price. Styled for transitional looks, the piece is ultimately given a timeless, everlasting style.

Also available from Jane by Jane Lockhart made in collaboration with Korson Furniture Design are sofas, ottomans, sectionals, and casegoods. For more information about where you can purchase Jane by Jane Lockhart send an email to info@statumdesigns.com or visit www.janelockhart.com.
